Gowrie Group, New England’s most prominent insurance agency, is pleased to announce their corporate sponsorship of the Ox Ridge Charity Horse Show. This week long show took place in Darien, Connecticut from June 11th to June 16th.

Gowrie Group was proud to be a sponsor the Ox Ridge Charity Horse Show, which celebrated its 88th year in 2019. The show took place June 11th to June 16th and featured top riders from around the world competing in a range of hunter/jumper, equitation classes including a Hunter Derby and Grand Prix. The Ox Ridge Charity Horse show is a USEF 4 National event.

Kiley Prime shared her thoughts on the show, “Gowrie is proud to insure and sponsor the Ox Ridge Charity Horse Show. This show brings top riders and supports charities that enhance the lives of so many. It is an honor to sponsor a show that goes the extra mile.”

Kiley Prime, Gowrie’s Personal and Equine Insurance Specialist, is an accomplished riders herself. She has competed in the Ox Ridge Charity Horse Show in the past. Kiley began showing at age four in the Lead Line Class at the National Horse Show. She continued her riding career throughout the east coast in the pony hunters and junior Hunter divisions. She shares her passion for the sport by volunteering with therapeutic horseback riding centers and animal shelters.

“We are thrilled to have sponsored this year’s Ox Ridge Charity Horse Show,” shared Steve Schram, Gowrie Group’s Insurance Specialist. “It is an honor to be a part of a tradition that engages talented... equestrians in a competition to benefit individuals with special needs through therapeutic riding. Gowrie Group stands behind this wonderful cause."
