January 2011 delivered some of the most extreme weather on record. And February greeted us today with severe winter weather across more than half of the country.

Gowrie Group invites you to visit our new Winter Weather Center to access important information on how to best stay safe, protect your property, and prepare for more winter storms and deep freezes. Specifically, in our weather center you will find:

- Live weather advisory tracking from the NOAA website
- Guidelines for winterizing your home
- Ways to prepare your car for winter
- Safe winter driving tips
- Winter freeze-up precautions for businesses and yacht clubs

If you need to report a claim:
- During business hours call your account manager directly or our main line at 800.262.8911.
- For a full list of our insurance carrier direct claim hotlines visit our claims page on our website at www.gowrie.com/claims
- Outside of business hours you can reach us at 800.262.8911, press option #6 and you will reach our live 24/7 customer service center.

Be safe and keep warm,
Gowrie Group
