The Devon Horse Show & Country Fair is the oldest and largest outdoor multi-breed horse show in the United States. She began riding at the age of 5 and continued to show jumping and fox hunting until the late 1990’s. She has been involved in equine insurance since the 1980’s. Holly continues to give back to the equine community through various efforts including fund raising for United States Equestrian Foundation and for Canine Partners for life.

Holly Griffin shared her thoughts on the Devon Horse Show, “We are honored to be sponsoring the Devon Horse Show & Country Fair and to be part of a tradition that goes back to 1896. This event draws top competitors that demonstrate the same passion that was shown when it first began. It is truly special to be a part of an event that gets better and better every year.”
Kiley Prime, a Personal & Equine Insurance Specialist at Gowrie Group, is an accomplished rider herself. She competed in the Devon Horse Show in 2014. She shares her passion for the sport by volunteering with therapeutic horseback riding centers and animal shelters.

Kiley shared her insight on the show, “This show has history and culture unlike any other show and it brings in the top riders and horses from across the country. It is an honor to be a part of this iconic show.”
