Gowrie Group Sponsors Devon Horse Show
Press Release, For Immediate Release.
May 26, 2016 | Westbrook CT, Newport RI, West Chester PA

Gowrie Group, a prominent independent insurance agency, is excited to announce their corporate sponsorship of the 2016 Devon Horse Show & Country Fair. Devon is the oldest and largest outdoor multi-breed competition in the United States. It is internationally recognized, USEF-A rated, and one of the country’s most exciting equine events. The event draws top competitors from around the world. This year’s show will take place in Devon, PA from May 26th to June 5th.

Gowrie Group is sponsoring the Ladies Side Saddle division as well as providing the Champion and Reserve Champion of each division with a saddle pad.

Kiley Prime, an accomplished rider and a Personal Lines and Equine Insurance Specialist at Gowrie Group, will be joining Holly Griffin who manages Gowrie Group’s Equine, Farm, and Ranch division at the 2016 Devon Horse Show.

Kiley began showing at age four in the Lead Line Class at the National Horse Show. She continued her riding career throughout the east coast in the pony hunters and junior hunter divisions. Today she shows in the amateur owner hunters. Over the past 15 years, she has been awarded multiple year end championships in New England and USEF Zone 1, as well as champions at such shows as HITS, Old Salem, Fairfield, Ox Ridge and Saratoga. Kiley shares her passion for the sport by volunteering with therapeutic horseback riding centers and animal shelters.

Holly is a longtime equine specialist and horse lover. She began riding at the age of 5 and continued show jumping and fox hunting until the late 1990’s. She has been involved in equine insurance since the 1980’s. She continues to give back to the equine community through various efforts including fund raising for United States Equestrian Foundation and for Canine Partners for Life. Holly currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Devon Horse Show.
