

Gowrie Launches Safety & Loss Control Practice, to be Managed by Expert Kellie Crete

February 22, 2012 – Westbrook, CT

Gowrie Group has launched a new Safety & Loss Control Practice area which will be led by industry expert, Kellie Crete. Crete will work with commercial and non-profit organizations throughout New England to help these companies reduce their exposures to risk and improve their safety standards.

Kellie Crete was chosen to manage this offering for Gowrie Group because of her deep industry and segment expertise, including over twenty-three years of experience in environmental, health & safety consulting. Crete and Gowrie Group have complementary client portfolios and will now bring an expanded array of insurance and safety resources to organizations throughout New England.

“We are adding capabilities while the industry is scaling back on services,” noted Ed Gumbrecht, Gowrie Group President. “There is a need for these types of offerings, and Kellie has an incredible depth of knowledge to bring to the market.”

Kellie Crete, said, “This is professionally exciting for me. Through Gowrie Group I will be able to bring my years of safety and loss control experience to an even broader and more diverse client base.”

Through a new section on the gowrie.com website, valuable safety and loss control resources, seminars, and safety training sessions will soon be available.

Crete is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts and resides in Marion, Massachusetts. Crete can be reached at kelliec@gowrie.com.
