Gowrie Group is excited to announce that Kiley Prime has joined the company as a Personal Lines and Equine insurance specialist. Kiley will further the expansion of Gowrie's established equine insurance practice and also bring additional growth opportunity to Gowrie's personal insurance segment. In her new role, Kiley will work with Gowrie's personal insurance and equine teams to advise clients on insurance solutions for their homes, autos, umbrella, valuables, and equine related assets.

Kiley began riding at age four in the Lead Line Class at the National Horse Show. She continued her riding career through pony hunters and moved on to junior hunters. Today she competes as an amateur owner. Over the past 10 years, she has been awarded multiple year end championships in New England and USEF Zone 1, as well as champions at such shows as HITS, Saratoga, and Ox Ridge. Kiley shares her passion for the sport by volunteering with therapeutic horseback riding centers and animal shelters.

Ed Gumbrecht, President and COO of Gowrie Group stated, "Kiley is a strategic addition to our growing Gowrie team. She will enable us to bring insurance expertise, customized solutions, and the Gowrie service experience to many new clients across the region. In particular her depth of knowledge in the equine arena will strengthen our expanding practice."

Kiley is a graduate of Suffolk University. She resides in Newport, RI and will service clients from the Newport and Westbrook CT office. She can be reached at kileyp@gowrie.com, 860.510.3591
