Brewer Preferred Insurance coverage is tailored to each boat owner. While no two policies are alike, and not all policies are insured by the same insurance company, all Brewer Preferred Insurance packages are with one of nine A-rated insurance companies. “We’ve found that locking in with one insurance company does not offer the most competitive price or the best coverage at all times,” says Sarah Davidson, of Gowrie, Barden, and Brett’s marketing department. “Instead we go to all our markets and outline the best insurance solution for each boat owner.”
